

User worked crossing with telephone

- Stop, look both ways and listen.
- Obey signs.
- If you are crossing with vehicles or animals, you must use the telephone to get permission to cross.
- When you have permission to cross, open the gates on both sides of the railway.
- If crossing with a vehicle, consider how long it will take to cross. How heavy is your vehicle and load? What's the clearance of your vehicle – will it hit lines above or is there a risk of it grounding?
- If crossing with animals, consider how long it will take to cross and whether they are likely to stray onto the railway.
- Cross quickly and stay alert. Do not stop on the crossing.
- Close both gates after crossing, never leave them open.
- You must telephone railway staff after crossing if they ask you to.

How to use the crossing

01 Stop, look both ways and listen to make sure a train is not coming. If a train is coming wait in a safe place.

02 You must use the telephone to get permission to cross if crossing with vehicles or animals.

03 When you have permission to cross, open the gates on both sides of the railway.

04 Cross quickly and stay alert, do not stop on the crossing.

05 Close both gates after crossing, never leave them open.

06 You must telephone railway staff after crossing if they ask you to.

Pedestrians only

- Stop, look both ways and listen.
- Ensure you have enough time to cross safely, then cross quickly and stay alert.
- Close the gates behind you, never leave them open.

In association with

